THE CITY GOVERNMENT.—In another place we have called the attention of the Common Council to a matter of no small importance, and again in this article we would refer to the management—or rather the mis-management—of city affairs, and to our complaint against a gross nuisance existing in almost every street in the city, and for which we must consider the city officials responsible. It were the duty of a street commissioner, it should be his duty to see the streets in better condition, when it can be done. Does a merchant receive goods, he does not empty the boxes they come in than they are piled up on the side-walks, from seven to ten feet high in some places, and there they are permitted to remain for months, in direct contradiction of what should be the [illegible] acts. Does a [illegible] old awning [illegible] down and [illegible] about the work independent of [illegible] regulations, and is permitted to leave the [illegible] taking into the thoroughfare, and it remains so at the option of the depositor. Side-walks, crossings, etc., are constructed just when ever and where ever the builder is disposed to make them, irrespective of grades, or anything else! The streets generally now are as filthy as ever, and have a fair prospect of being worse for winter—not receiving a particle of cleaning, except at it is done by private enterprise, and there is very little of that. We do not wish to be considered as dealing in any personal or prejudiced manner, except as concerns the city, and we should like to know that the paid officers of the people are doing their work properly and in accordance with laws regulating the same, or receive some expression from them why they do not. The affairs of the city are working altogether too loosely. There exists not a doubt but that is one of the officials are too unmindful of the interests of the city. The Recorder's Court has become quite a nullity, simply because the City Attorney does not perform the duties of his office, and we trust to see [illegible] things prevail. We have been pained to witness the inoperative acts of our present city charter in relation to general improvements, but there is no excuse whatever for culpable neglect of the city officers as above. The new charter is now pending in the State Legislature, and ought soon to become a law, but its provisions cannot benefit us much the present season. How much truth there is in the report that it is liable to defeat we are not prepared to say, but in case it should fail to pass those instrumental in its defeat will be held strictly accountable for their acts.

A BIG MISTAKE.—The improvements—if so they may be called—now being made at the corner of Salmon and Fourth streets in this city, bear upon their face the mark of an outrageous mistake somewhere. A citizen is compelled to build a fence and trestle work—in the shape of a railroad bridge—within a few inches of his door, where a former years he had constructed his fencing. His next neighbor is compelled to tear away a portion of his building for the line of the same walk—another has to take up a fine row of fruit trees—another a part of his house—and so it will run for an indefinite number of blocks, lots and streets. The work thus commenced is in accordance with a resolution of the Common Council, authorizing the City Surveyor to give the lines of grade to any citizen who wished to make improvements, and the stakes have been set by that officer, but there is evidently a great mistake somewhere, and it should be the duty of this Council to look into the matter, and rectify it before the city has entailed upon it an endless litigation, and an expense that will be a burden for a generation to come at least. The lots now being improved in accordance with this survey are Nos. 5 and 6 on block 52, the property of G. T. Myers. His line will project on the adjoining property nine feet, and this is crowded off again into the street for a like distance, and so on ad finem.

NEW BOOKS RECEIVED.—H. Bancroft & Co., stationery dealers and book-sellers, San Francisco, California, have forwarded to us by express the following new books:

PATRIOTISM AND OTHER PAPERS: The writings of the late T. Starr King, presented to his friends and admirers under circumstances of more than ordinary interest, by the promptings of a more than ordinary notice, with a biographical sketch of the writer. By Hon. Richard Frothingham. 8 vo. 360 pp. Boston: Thompson & Co., Publishers.

MACARIA; OR ALTARS OF SACRIFICE: By Augusta J. Evans, author of "Beulah;" 12 mo. 475 pp. New York: John Bradburn, Publisher.

SEVEN STORIES—With Basement and Attic: Made up from special reminiscences of travel, in a quaint style. The finial suggests the character of the work in these words: "Thus far the pleasant ones of my little note books have carried me, until I have reached the last half story, lying under the roof. The little books shall have a long rest now; and whatever I venture upon in future in imaginative labors, shall have its seat nearer home. It is not much in way of apology, or of promise, that I say this, as it is for the adjustment of some need joint for the peak of the roof of my building of seven stories." By Donald G. Mitchell. 12 mo. 314 pp., on tinted laid paper. New York: Charles Scribner, Publisher.

BANCROFT'S DIARY FOR 1865: Containing very much useful information, published in a variety of forms.

A SUPERB LOT.—A. D. Shelby, [illegible] No. 95 First street, has lately returned from San Francisco with a superb assortment of every kind and style of boots and shoes, direct from the Eastern market. The assortment comprises Ladies' and Misses' ties, shoes and gaiters of the latest Parisian patterns, also plain, embroidered and steel tipped chamber and house slippers. Boots and shoes for men's and boys' wear are too numerous to mention. We recommend our readers to pay this establishment a visit, they can then see the results of a strict and liberal business policy, adopted by the genial manager of that establishment.

A NEW PRESS.—The press of business in the Oregon Farmer Book and Job Printing establishment, in this city, has necessitated the purchase of more machinery, and yesterday we noticed a carpenter enlarging the office door to admit of the entrance of a new and improved Printing Press, making the fourth one added to that concern within two years. If the disciples of Faust do not [illegible] the times they are certainly not far behind them in this country.

FROM HONOLULU.—The bark Cambridge, N. C. Brooks Master, will be up to this city this evening, in tow of the steamer John H. Couch. She has made a fine run in about 24 days from the Islands to the Columbia river, and is now thoroughly established as a regular packet in this trade. She has sugar, coffee, 1,300 [illegible] rice, [illegible], salt, [illegible], coral, etc.

PAVING SUSPENDED.—We notice that the paving of Front street has been suspended after reaching the junction of Pine street. We regret this, inasmuch as the work already completed around the [illegible] of the most important avenues in the city, his very important attractions connected with it. We understand the suspension is in consequence of [illegible] gation in reference to the property adjoining.

A COINCIDENCE.—Two years ago the present month in writing to a friend in Minnesota, we mentioned among other things that it was raining in Portland. He arrived here last evening by the steamer New World, and immediately upon his introduction in the city, found us out. It was raining, but we can assure our friend it was not the same old storm.

TROPICAL FRUITS.—O'Connor & Co. have [illegible] lots of tropical fruits, received direct from the Sandwich Islands ex bark Cambridge. We have tried samples of their sweet potatoes and bananas, and we pronounced them good.

GRAPES.—J. N. Skillmore, who has recently established a fruit store on First street, near Taylor, has placed us under obligations for a handsome sample of grapes.

UNITED STATES CURRENCY.—Greenbacks are going up. Within about a week their value has increased about 12½ cent. in the San Francisco market.

The steamer Julia will start from Couch's wharf at 6 p. m. to-day with passengers and express for the California steamship.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.—The person who found the package of letters, advertised [illegible] lost on or about [illegible] between this city and Taylor's Ferry, will receive the above reward by leaving the package at [illegible]

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "slight cold" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.
Redington & Co., San Francisco Agents for the Pacific Coast.

Periodical Headaches—so common in the uncleared and marshy countries, Tic Douloureux, that most painful affection of the nerves of the face, are often only attacks of ague in disguise—proceeding from the same noxious influences. Jaundice, Dyspepsia and Diarrhea are frequently but disguised forms of Intermittent Fever. Even Rheumatism and Epilepsy, often result from the same miasmatic cause. For such, Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is an unfailing remedy. By striking at the root of these affections, it applies with equal certainty, as for the cure of Fever and Ague in its simplest forms.
Imitations are abroad! Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. Sold everywhere.
Sole Agents for the Pacific Coast, REDINGTON & CO.,
416 and 418 Front street, San Francisco.

Dysentery.—For Dyspepsia and similar complaints of the summer season, the PERUVIAN SYRUP has proved a remarkable preventive and cure. By imparting tone to the intestinal mucous membrane, it places this surface in the best possible condition to resist the irritation of crude and indigestible articles of food.

Oregonians should test the merits of Dr. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. While it is highly palatable as a beverage, it is unequaled as an invigorator. In the pursuit of fortune in the mines, many persons are exposed to all sorts of complaints of the digestive organs, and of various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has so long been in demand at the mines. Its daily use will restore the tone of a deranged stomach, impart fresh vitality to the digestive functions, and cheer the spirits. Yet the Bitters is the safest of all stimulants. Let the miner who is exposed to hot and dry, wet and cold, be certain to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitters, and he will find it a certain safeguard to health.—Sold by Druggists and dealers generally. jy26&w

REBEL ACCOUNT OF THE CAPTURE OF GENERAL STONEMAN.—The Macon (Georgia) Telegraph gives the following particulars of the [illegible] unlucky Yankee affair," the defeat and capture of Gen. Stoneman:

The General had sustained but little loss in the engagement, and as soon as he saw preparations making to charge him again, he dispatched a white flag proposing an unconditional surrender of his whole force. The flag was received by Col. Crews, who then confronted him with 182 men. As soon as Stoneman saw the [illegible] to whom he had surrendered, he sat down and cried like a child. He handed his sword over to Col. C., and his staff divested themselves of their arms. His Yankees at once threw down their arms, but the [illegible] ing by this [illegible] the cowardice of their general in giving up to such a small force, broke through the woods pell mell, helter skelter, making off to the left. Gen. Iverson ordered pursuit, and it is generally believed nearly the whole party will be taken, with but a few exceptions. We captured full 1,000 horses and many stand of arms, two [illegible] three-inch rifle cannon and caissons, several colors and guidons. Stoneman had only two cannon. He gives as an excuse that he was out of ammunition, but that is only his story. The Alabama brigade was sent in pursuit of the enemy.

The Macon papers of August 1st state that the captured Stoneman raiders continued to arrive there as prisoners. A large number of officers captured at Newnan had also arrived.

GIRLS.—The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher says: "A girl is not allowed to be a girl after she is ten years old. If you treat her as though she were one, she will ask you what you mean. If she starts to run across the street, she is brought back to the nursery to listen to a lecture on the propriety of womanhood. Now it seems to me that a girl ought to be nothing but a girl until she is seventeen. Of course there are proprieties belonging to her sex, which it is fitting for her to observe, but it seems to me that aside from these she ought to have the utmost latitude. She ought to be encouraged to do much out of doors, to run and exercise in all those ways which are calculated to develop the muscular frame. What is true of boys, in the matter of bodily health, is eminently so of girls. It is vastly more important that women should be. Man votes and writes, and does business, but the woman is the teacher and the mother of the world, and anything that deteriorates woman is a comprehensive plague on human life itself. Health among women is a thing that every man who is wise and considerate for his race should more earnestly seek and promote."

SOMETHING NEW.—The Confederates are using shells made of stone, about a foot long, conical in shape. They are cheaper than iron shells, and break into more numerous fragments when thrown.—English Paper.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY [illegible] it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been regarded the most [illegible] article in Materia Medica [illegible] the human system. It is [illegible]

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the great [illegible] which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr. H. Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enables him to dissolve without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the faculty that it was published in the Medical journals, and [illegible] "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1864, page 70.

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is exceedingly strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color, [illegible] pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain top, distant valleys and far off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office.

[illegible] Wis., [illegible] 1864.

[illegible] in the army hospital for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. [illegible] Three bottles restored my speech and cured me.

C. A. FLAUTE.

[illegible] July 28, 1863.

[illegible] EDWARD WHITNALL.

The following is from the Manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

[illegible] August 2, 1863.

[illegible] Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. [illegible] little girl [illegible] with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. [illegible] a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. [illegible]

Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE."

[illegible] I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.

REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y."

[illegible] Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefitted by their use.

Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa."

[illegible] I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. [illegible] The Plantation Bitters have cured me.

REV. C. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

[illegible] Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house.

SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,

Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

[illegible] I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.

G. W. ANDREWS,

Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

[illegible] The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business. H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

[illegible] The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the Kidneys and Urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.

C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.

etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.
